WEEK 3 RECAPS THE LATEST AWARDS WEEKS 1-3 POWER RANKINGS NOT ESPN'S

Ceedeez La DD 117.10 OG Token 112.24

A statement win from the league's most handsome commissioner. Nephew beats uncle by 4.86, and Ken did help. He started Mahomes (15.94) and left Darnold's 27.66 on the bench, plus Meyers' 19.4. Optimal lineup was 145.84. Matthew rode Tyler Shough (23.8) and CeeDee (20.2). Elite roster construction, frankly.

Pookie Nacuie 95.34 Not Irving Trying 80.78

Dylan left 49.9 on the bench: Michael Wilson (25.9) and Juwan Johnson (23.3) sat while Jefferson (5.2), Hampton (5.6), Kincaid (3.8) and McMillan (3.7) started. Set it right and he wins by 35. Not Irving Trying, not lineup setting either. Derek scores 95 and goes 3-0 anyway, because of course.

Better luck next time! 153.04 White Guy 91.18

Gibbs dropped 41.4 and Bowers came off IR for 27.6. Better luck next time? Jeremy's 2-1, he doesn't need it. Logan started Achane (1.7) and benched Sadiq (23.5) and Wan'Dale (18.7). Losing margin: 61.86, the exact same number he lost by in Week 1. That's not a slump, that's a brand.

Njigbas in Paris 140.14 Mr Steinfeld And Co 103.46

JSN 35.36, Drake London 28.4. Justin's Eagles D/ST went for -1. Josh Allen had a quiet one, which this paper blames on the Buffalo weather and on Justin, in that order.

I Don't Know 166.04 darn im old 102.04

Week high. Bijan 35.3, Fannin 24.1, and Nate still started a 0-projection Nico Collins for the second straight week. darn im old benched Goff (19.36) to start Herbert (12.74). Again. Forgetful. More on that later.

Backshot Brandon 132.44 120.08

Kittle 26.2, Henry 21.9, and Connor hands Tommy his first loss. Purdy put up 31.28 but St. Brown (11.9 on a 19.9 projection) didn't show and Addison's 20 sat on the bench.

THE REWIND WEEKS 1 & 2

WEEK 1

OG Token 140.40, Better luck next time! 111.64. Swift 32.4, Dart 26.6. Bo Nix gave Jeremy 5.44.

Pookie Nacuie 138.96, Njigbas in Paris 97.60. Caleb 37.26, Jeanty 32.7. Waddle: 1.2.

darn im old 126.16, Ceedeez La DD 118.82. Olave 28.2. Sarah won with Jalen Coker's 33.8 on her bench.

Backshot Brandon 127.66, Not Irving Trying 116.96. Henry 35.3 beat Jefferson's 31.2.

168.92, White Guy 107.06. Walker 34.1, Watson 32.7. Season high.

Mr Steinfeld And Co 127.16, I Don't Know 112.00. Allen 35.66. Nate left 30.9 on the pine, enough to win.

WEEK 2

Pookie Nacuie 101.12, OG Token 69.10. Ken started Dart (0.8) over Mahomes (28.98). Season low.

Better luck next time! 107.82, Ceedeez La DD 92.52. Jeremy set a perfect lineup. Matthew left 36.8, incl. Kelce's 25.1.

Njigbas in Paris 128.26, Not Irving Trying 102.64. JSN went for 42.5, the best single game of the year.

darn im old 104.18, White Guy 92.68. Sarah left 52.9 on the bench and won anyway.

Mr Steinfeld And Co 127.22, Backshot Brandon 113.70. Allen 40.82. Connor left 38.7 sitting.

140.96, I Don't Know 123.76. St. Brown 35.2. Nate's Collins: 0 on a 0 projection.

PLAYER OF THE WEEK Jahmyr Gibbs (Jeremy), 41.4. Season total 98.3 and the reason Jeremy is 2-1 despite treating the waiver wire like a group chat.

PLAYER OF THE MONTH Jaxon Smith-Njigba (Jonny), 104.06. 26.2, 42.5, 35.36. Jonny named the team after him and the man is paying rent.

BENCH BLUNDER Dylan, Week 3. 49.9 left on the bench in a 14.56-point loss. Optimal lineup was 130.68. That's how you go 0-3.

HEART-BREAKER Ken, Week 3. Lost by 4.86 to his nephew with Darnold's 27.66 on the bench. Fixing the QB alone wins it.

ONE WEEK LATE Ken. W2: benched Mahomes (28.98) for Dart (0.8). W3: starts Mahomes (15.94), benches Darnold (27.66). Always chasing last week.

THE HERBERT SITUATION Sarah. Goff has outscored Herbert all three weeks from the bench: 65.58 to 33.88. Most bench points in the league (105.5). Somehow 2-1.

STARTED A GHOST Nate. Nico Collins, 0 projection, in the WR slot in Weeks 2 and 3. Team name checks out: I Don't Know.

PERFECT LINEUP Jeremy, Week 2. Zero points left on the bench, against his own son. Cold.

SAQUON WATCH Matthew. Barkley: 9, 3, 9. The commissioner's office calls this "load management" and considers the matter closed.

LEAGUE MVP (UNBIASED) Josh Allen. 35.66 and 40.82, two wins carried. Any game under 30 is weather, refs, or Justin not believing in him enough.

TRADE REPORT WAIVER WIRE EDITION

Trades processed: 0 Three weeks in, nobody has traded anybody. One offer got declined in Week 1, and that's been the entire market. Somebody make a move.

Jeremy: 19 transactions VERDICT Most in the league by nine. Highlights: dropped Kamara Week 1 (Derek has him now), dropped Michael Mayer twice, picked up C.J. Stroud and cut him one minute later for Tank Bigsby, who lasted two days. Also cut Bateman after a 21.8 week. Somehow it's working.

Everyone else LEADER Tommy 10, Logan 7, Ken 6, Dylan 6, Jonny 4, Derek 4, Matthew 3, Nate 1, Sarah 1. Connor and Justin: zero. They're set it and forget it guys.

- 1 Tommy • 2-1 • 429.96 Leads the league in PF by 28 and is 29-4 in all-play. Godfather behavior.
- 2 Backshot Brandon Connor • 2-1 • 373.80 23-10 all-play, beat the best team. Should be 3-0 if he sets the Week 2 lineup.
- 3 I Don't Know Nate • 1-2 • 401.80 2nd in PF and +26.8/wk over projection. Collins and A.J. Brown are both hurt though.
- 4 Njigbas in Paris Jonny • 2-1 • 366.00 JSN is a cheat code. Rest of the roster is TBD.
- 5 Better luck next time! Jeremy • 2-1 • 372.50 Gibbs plus a healthy Bowers is scary. The waiver habit is a separate problem.
- 6 Mr Steinfeld And Co Justin • 2-1 • 357.84 Allen carried two wins and got let down in the third.
- 7 Pookie Nacuie Derek • 3-0 • 335.42 7th in PF, 14-19 all-play, and his opponents average 82.5. Nacuia's been out two weeks.
- 8 Ceedeez La DD Matthew • 1-2 • 328.44 ▲1 Survived Sarah, Jeremy and Ken. Rank set by the commissioner. Appeals denied.
- 9 darn im old Sarah • 2-1 • 332.38 105.5 bench pts. Start Goff. Docked a spot for beating the commish.
- 10 OG Token Ken • 1-2 • 321.74 84.4 bench pts. Four QBs rostered, never starts the right one.
- 11 Not Irving Trying Dylan • 0-3 • 300.38 Jefferson averaging 15, Daniels sat Week 3, 73.7 left on the bench.
- 12 White Guy Logan • 0-3 • 290.92 4-29 in all-play. Lowest PF. Achane: 1.7 last week. Rough.
